

December 3 - 4, 2020 | Middlesex University, Mauritius
Full Submission Deadline: June 8, 2020

SCOPE

Deploying efficient and effective infrastructures and solutions when limited resources are available is a challenging task and a key-enabler for the diffusion of ICT in developing countries. The aim of this conference is bringing together international researchers, students, public officers, policy makers and practitioners in ICT to discuss issues and trends, recent research, innovation advances and on-the-field experiences related to e-Governance, e-Infrastructure, and e-Business with a focus on developing countries.

AFRICOMM 2020 solicits high-quality papers reporting research results and/or experimental results on e-Infrastructures and e-Services for developing countries. Submissions will be judged on their originality, significance, clarity, relevance, and technical correctness.

We are pleased to invite you to submit your paper to AFRICOMM 2020. Submissions should be in English, following the Springer formatting guidelines (see Submission).
